CROSSROADS

CROSSROADS

1964

*Joplin Junior College
Joplin, Missouri*

To Tell a Story —

The elements: a kind of photograph, a copy style, a type face, an idea to be interpreted. And then the interpretations: the artist's, the writer's, the photographer's, and the editor's. The ground rules: good journalism, faculty, administration, parents, and artistic sense conflict and battle each other viciously. There are many styles, many ways, many preferences, many tastes.

This is the first of the larger Crossroads. It is big and flashy, raw in spots, rare in others, and artistic all over. If you cared to be pictured you were, and we tried to spell your name properly. The story is real, unretouched, and incisive. The editorial is gentle, yet reflects this Joplin Junior College, this student body, this year of 1964.

You wanted group pictures out-of-doors. You wanted color. You wanted a special picture. You wanted exciting pictures. You wanted deeper, more vibrating copy. You wanted a memory storehouse of JUCO 1964. You wanted all this: all this you have. Looking backwards, upside down, and a little forward here it is.

Vicki Linda

MISS ADA COFFEY

Dedication

We, the staff of the 1964 Crossroads, dedicate this book to the memory of a great teacher, Miss Ada Coffey. Her influence upon Joplin Junior College and its students will long remain. A wonderful teacher, a sincere counselor, and a true friend, Miss Coffey will live forever in the hearts of those who knew her.

Student Body Officers

Vicki Clement, Vicki Vernatti, Myron McKinney, Karen Foust, Barbara Stone.

Myron has more than fulfilled his position as president of the student body. His leadership and concern has made this year of 1963-1964 the best year ever.

The vice-president, Karen, served as a capable and energetic assistant throughout the year.

The secretary, Barbara, was always ready with neat and accurate minutes.

Vicki Vernatti, as treasurer, kept a record of the financial transactions of the Student Senate.

Vicki Clement was an able parliamentarian who kept the group on the "straight and narrow."

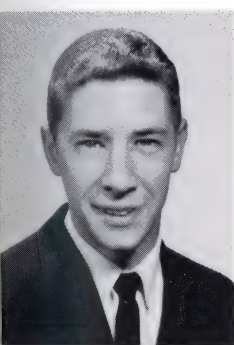

These officers, your student body officers, were elected at the end of last year's term. They have served you and your school all summer and throughout this 1964 term.

We, the student body of JUCO, give thanks to these officers for helping us have a good and prosperous school year.

PEGI DUGGAN and LINDA ALLINGTON

SMILE!

The JUCO Cheerleaders work hard to build up the spirit of the college students at all the games. In addition to this, they put on two Pep Assemblies during the school year in honor of the Football and Basketball teams.

Thank you, girls, for helping this to be a wonderful year at J.J.C.

MILLIE BLANKENSHIP

Millie makes frequent use of Mr. Graham Bell's invention to carry out her duties as President of C.C.U.N., as well as her responsibilities as an active Senator.

MARGARET BUTLER

Mrs. Butler is an inspiration to us all for her outstanding scholastic achievements.

Who's on

Certain individuals each year are outstanding in those qualities that best promote the interests of their college.

BOB HOLDEN

As well as being an outstanding musician, Bob's scholastic and service achievements have brought him well deserved recognition.

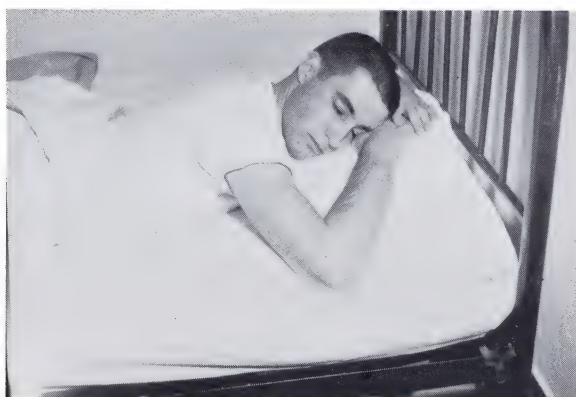

MAC HORNECKER

Mac combines his artistic and athletic ability with his desire to participate in college activities in such a way as to make him an indispensable asset to the college.

DON KELLHOFFER

Don's quiet, restful manner is deceiving for his impact has been felt through his achievements as Class President and an outstanding member of the Basketball Squad.

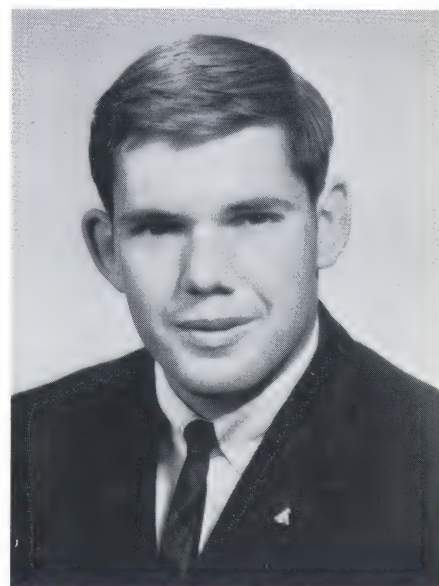

Who Campus

This section is to honor those students. The faculty made the final decision concerning the appointment of this honor.

MYRON McKINNEY

Myron, as President of the Student Body and Captain of the Football Squad, has managed to do his job well in both fields and achieve scholastic honors as well.

PHOEBE PIGG

Phoebe's sweet personality, her dependability, and her willingness to work make her a girl known and admired by all.

JUDY RAINWATER

Judy's achievements are many as she has worked hard on the Summer Cabinet and Student Senate, in dramatics, and as President of the Tri Beta Sorority.

Who's on

CAROLE SMART

Carole has a fabulous talent for music and, although she spends much of her time expanding this talent, she finds time to maintain her high grade point average.

Who Campus

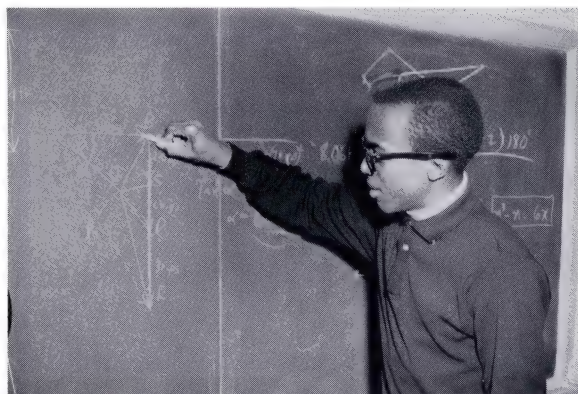

BARBARA STONE

Even though Barb is very active in her college activities as Secretary of the Student Senate and head delegate to M.M.U.N., she manages to find time to pursue her many other interests, one of which is appearing on a weekly television program.

ANDREW WALKER

Andy is an active member of the Student Body and has added much to this school year through his work as an officer of Phi Theta Kappa and as President of the Math Club.

LINDA YOKLEY

Linda's interest in the many varied activities of the college have brought her recognition as an outstanding musician, a member of Phi Theta Kappa, and Co-Editor of the Crossroads.
